

Residential Aged Care Community of Practice Networking event

North East
Victoria

When: Wednesday 3 September
6.00pm - 8.30pm
Dinner will be provided

Where: Atura Albury, 648 Dean Street
(parking available onsite)

Audience: Clinical and care staff in residential aged care homes, GPs and other health professionals working with residential aged care homes including pharmacist and allied health professionals.

Register: Register to attend here (or use the QR code)

An evening focussed on collaboration and mental health. Keynote speaker Professor Sunil Bhar from Swinburne University of Technology, will be joined by a multidisciplinary panel of local health professionals

Sunil is a clinical psychologist who specialises in the use of psychological therapy for elderly individuals. He directs the Swinburne Wellbeing Clinic for Older Adults, which provides counselling and assistance to aged care residents, their families and residential care staff. Since 2005, he has led research and conducted behavioural studies on depression, suicide and anxiety in older persons.