

SPOTS ARE LIMITED - DON'T MISS OUT!

Major Asthma Management Updates

KNOW WHAT'S CHANGED.
APPLY IT WITH CONFIDENCE.

Implementing the National Asthma Council's updated Australian Asthma Handbook guidelines in primary care

A practical, case-based education evening designed to help you confidently apply the latest guideline updates in clinical practice.

WEDNESDAY,
17TH JUNE 2026

-  DINNER PROVIDED
-  6:30PM - 8:30PM
-  MACKENZIE QUARTERS,
10 & 12 MACKENZIE ST, BENDIGO

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

- Understand key updates to the Australian Asthma Guidelines
- Explore the shift away from SABA-only therapy
- Discuss and apply AIR/MART therapy in clinical practice
- Identify strategies to reduce preventable exacerbations
- Improve inhaler technique and patient adherence
- Strengthen collaboration across primary care

SHERRI BARDEN

BPHARM, FANZCAP
(COMMPHARM/RESP), MPS,
FOUNDER APLUS PHARMACY
EDUCATION

Sherri Barden is an experienced community pharmacist and asthma educator with more than 30 years in community pharmacy.

She is the founder of APLUS Pharmacy Education, delivering respiratory education and training to healthcare professionals and patients across Australia, and is a member of the National Asthma Council Australia Pharmacist Asthma Advisory Group.

DR SAM KENNEDY

RURAL GENERALIST, MBBS
FRACGP DRANZCOG DIP
RG ANAES

Sam is the uncle of Zoe Kennedy, a Geelong teen who passed away after an acute asthma attack in 2020. He is a GP and anaesthetist in Echuca with a strong interest in emergency and critical care.

He teaches medical students and Doctors in Training at Echuca Regional Health and runs the annual "Initial Emergency Care" course in Mongolia. Sam is proud of the Zoe Kennedy Foundation's impact and its expanding work in asthma research and care.

REGISTER NOW

ENQUIRIES

0419 001 479

info@apluspharmacyeducation.com.au

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

MAJOR SPONSOR

DELIVERED BY

